Ethiopian Delegates Company Profile

Addis Ababa Chamber of Commerce & Sectoral Associations

Established in 1947, the Addis Ababa Chamber of Commerce & Sectoral Associations (AACCSA) is an autonomous, non-governmental, non-political and non-profit organization that acts on behalf of the private sector, located in and surrounding Addis Ababa. It has nearly 15, 000 members and is one of the largest and oldest chambers in Ethiopia and Africa. The chamber works in collaboration with government, stakeholders, and business development organizations nationally and internationally. Over the years, AACCSA has rigorously worked as an institutional platform for the private sector to echo concerns to government and policy makers and supported the competitiveness of Ethiopian businesses within and outside the country. AACCSA is member of the international chamber of commerce and certified for ISO 9001:2008.

The specific services delivered by AACCSA are: promoting trade and investment, disseminating business information via its media outlets including Addis Chamber TV programme, The Voice of Addis Chamber Radio Programme, Addis Business Newspaper and its website, consulting government and members on economic development and business issues, engaging in arbitration in times of disputes between businesses, building the capacity of member companies through continuous trainings, and establishing friendly relationships with similar chambers in other countries, among other things.

Vision Statement:

To be a world class chamber, enabling the business community to be competitive locally and internationally and contribute to the attainment of the trade and investment goals of the country.

Mission Statement:

To promote trade and investment by providing demand driven services to the best satisfaction of members, stakeholders and others and advocate for favorable business environment based on best practices." AACCSA believes that this is its essence – to be the driving force behind unifying businesses in Addis Ababa, ultimately leading to economic growth and vitality throughout the country.

Values:

Accountable, credible and transparent; Business-oriented; Customer-focused; Innovative through Creativity; Quality and Improvement Driven; Socially Responsible; and Team Oriented. These are AACCSA's Core Values – they are the heart of all that it does to the business community. They shall be reflected in the works that AACCSA does and will be promoted consistently by the Board and staff.
